OFFICER'S NARRATIVE

On 4/04/018, I worked uniformed patrol in the city of Thousand Oaks as 9C11. At approximately 0938 hours, I was dispatched to 804 Fowler Avenue reference a subject disturbing inside the residence.

The subject inside was identified as Ian Long. Information about Ian was obtained from his neighbors and prior contacts. Ian was a prior service United States Marine who had seen combat over seas. Ian possibly suffered from Post Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD), depression, and anger management issues. Ian possibly had firearms registered to him.

Last night, Ian was agitated and punched a hole in the bathroom wall.

On 4/04.2018, Ian's neighbors believed Ian was suffering a "mental breakdown" because they heard loud noises coming from the residence and saw Ian either punch or push something through the exterior wall of the house. A small hole was created in the stucco [redacted]

Upon arrival, I could not hear any noise from the residence. Based on Ian's irrational behavior and the possibility of Ian owning firearms, I waited outside the house until additional deputies arrived on scene.

Deputy [redacted] and Sergeant [redacted] arrived on scene. We staged outside the house, just south of the residence. b6 b7C

[redacted] by telephone. [redacted] told [redacted] the following in summary:

Ian had recently been involved in a motorcycle accident where his left shoulder was severely injured. Ian's attitude changed significantly after the accident. Ian alienated himself from his friends and was kicked out of school. As of late, Ian spends most of his time [redacted]

Ian has no job and no money. [redacted] Ian can go to his physical therapy meetings and get food and supplies when he needs. b6 b7C

[redacted]

[redacted]

Ian is not prescribed any medication and does not take any drugs beside marijuana.

With this information, and the possibility of a firearm in the residence, we elected not to enter the residence to check Ian's well being.

[redacted] attempted to contact Ian by calling his cellular phone and sending text messages to him. Ian ignored the phone calls and did not respond to any text messages. b6 b7C

Deputies yelled into the residence for Ian to come out and talk with us. We made it clear we were called to the residence to check on Ian's well being but Ian did not answer our calls or exit the house to speak with us.

At one point, Ian exited the house through the front door, took approximately three steps outside, looked around, and went back into the house. While Ian was outside, [redacted] was able to see Ian was uninjured.

Around this time, [redacted] at deputies directions, attempted to contact Ian by telephone and have him exit the house. Ian responded [redacted] and agreed to exit the house and speak with us.

Shortly after agreeing to meet with us, Ian came outside and spoke to [redacted] and I. Ian said he did not want to hurt himself or anyone else. Ian claimed he got angry [redacted] Ian also said he has felt useless since his motorcycle accident because he has been unable to work. Ian's ultimate goal was to rejoin the military and he has been attending physical therapy weekly to reach that goal.

[redacted] and I spoke with Ian for approximately 30 minutes and determined Ian did not meet the criteria for a Welfare and Institution Code 5150 hold. The Crisis Team was called to speak with Ian to evaluate him and possibly provide resources to better help him.

[redacted] and I stood by with Ian [redacted] while we waited for the Crisis Team to arrive.

Crisis Team members [redacted] and [redacted] arrived on scene. Sergeant [redacted] and [redacted] briefed the crisis team on the situation. [redacted] and [redacted] entered the residence and spoke with Ian. Sergeant [redacted] and I stood by as they evaluated Ian.

b7C

After speaking with Ian, [redacted] and [redacted] also determined Ian did not meet the criteria for a W&I 5150 hold. The Crisis Team provided Ian with resources for a possible job and help with his anger management.

I completed A CIT card for Ian.

Sergeant [redacted] supervised the incident.
